

66th Annual Alabama State Conference Convention 4th to 7th October 2018 Speakers

Rev Charles A. Jackson

Pastor
Macedonia Baptist Church in Daphne, Alabama

In 2004, Pastor Charles A. Jackson was faithfully serving as a Deacon at Lilly Baptist Church in Mobile, Alabama, until God had a higher calling on his life. On March 21, 2004 Pastor Jackson transitioned from deacon to minister. He preached his initial sermon with tears running down his eyes and was licensed to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Rev. Charles Jackson is the pastor of Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in Daphne, Alabama where he has humbly served for six years. Under his leadership, the church has witnessed the blessing of God in many areas. The church has seen graceful growth in membership and the maturing of the church body. The upstairs of the Education Building was completed within two years of his appointment and has acquired two and a half acres of property directly behind the church for the building of a family life center. A Children's Nursery was started to take care of the children of the parents attending Sunday worship service. In 2014, an eight o' clock worship service was implemented, followed by breakfast. This has positively impacted the growth of the church and Sunday school attendance. Additionally, in 2014, the church sanctuary was remodeled, and new pews were installed in 2015. All these accomplishments were under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and by the grace of God.

Pastor Charles Jackson is married to the former Miss Yvette Knight. They are the proud parents of Rico, Andrew, Clifton and Nyla. Sister Jackson is a graduate of the University of South Alabama, where she obtained a bachelor's and master's degree in Nursing and is a Doctoral Candidate at Walden University. She is a Registered Nurse and the Director of the Surgical Technology Department at Faulkner State Community College, in Bay Minette, Alabama.
